LAND FOR SCHOOLS

Has Brief Prepared.

ACT IS AN OLD ONE

Judge Spillman, Representing Oklahoma State,

Agricultural Institutions Will Be Greatly Benefited by Funds.

Special to The World: OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 12.—The OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 12.—The schools of Okiahoma may be curiched to the extent of ten thounsand acres of land or its equivalent in government scrip within a few months, upon the decision of the secretary of the interior. The supplemental brief in the action to recover this land for the state has been prepared by Judge E. G. Spilman and is now in the hands of the printers. Judge Sailman will of the printers. Judge Spilman will go to Washington in a short time to present and arane the case for a final decision. The case is considered of vast im-portance, especially to the agricultural schools of the state. The action was pertance, especially to the agricultural schools of the state. The action was criginally brought for the purpose of taking advantage out the part of the state of the Morrill act, passed by concress in 1862, giving even state thirty thousand acres of land within its borders for each school or representative in congress. That act was subsequently amended in 1866 to apply to territories, and was later smeaded in 1832.

The state legislature of 1207-8, as provided as law accepted the benefits of the grant and the attorney-generals affine endeavoired to segregate all the ands in the state that were liable at that time under the terms of the grant. The land offices in the state resisted and an appeal was taken to the commissioner of the general land office, the sustained the position taken by the land offices of the state and mappeal was taken to the special was taken to the special was taken to the commissioner of the general taken by the land offices of the state and an appeal was taken to the secrestary of the interior. The case is now, to pending by the laim. Under the law to account to the state would now be entitled to ten thousand acres, as it had five representatives and two sensates at the time of admission.

Arguments have been made in this case by both Judge Spinsan and Sensator Owen, but addition, confeque was required and will be furnished as soon as the brief is printed.

Can Use More Money.

Can Use More Money. The supplemental brief will common a great deal of information about the seriodianal actuals of the state, prepared recently by the state hourd of surjections. This part of the braid shows that Oklahoma is expecting large sums for surjectivity education. but that additional funds can be used
